14 and Fi truck was parked ... imperial House, 2484 Oneiuu St.

rs-

erat

ra-

en s

in

rea-

in-

nd $\mathbf{b}c$

er

·е-

-1

Vogel.

Astor Neighborhood Up For National Register

A major portion of the Astor neighborhood will be considered for nomination to be- the National Register of Historic Places by the State Preservation ery Review Board Oct. 20 at 1: Historic 30 p.m. in Madison.

The meeting will be held in the Board Room of the State Historical Society, 816 State St., Madison. Designation as a historic would mean district would mean the Astor area would receive limited protection from encroachment by federally funded or assisted projects. It would also make the area eligible for federal matching grants for restoration and FHA-insured loans for home improvement.

It is being considered for nomination as a historic district because of its high concentration of Victorian and early 20th century houses associated with high concentration of Victorian and early 20th century houses associated with many of the. economic and social leaders in Green Bay's history. area's the Roughly, boundary follows the Fox River on the west, Mason Street on the north, Webster Avenue on the east and Grignon Street on the south, excluding the Water Department, Bellin Memorial Hospital and the more modern houses and apartment buildings in the 1100 blocks of Quincy and Jackson streets and Webster Avenue.

Comments in writing on the proposed nomination should be sent before Oct. 16 to Jeff Dean, Historic Preservation Division, State Historical Society.

Persons wishing to attend the Review Board meeting should also contact Dean.