4) SPECIAL GUESTS

Cheryl Renier-Wigg, Neighborhoods: Cheryl met with Carl, about the Bellin Capital Project fund money with Navarino ($57,000.00) joint projects. We felt we should work on the corridor between Monroe and Webster and Mason.

Alderman Tony Theisen: 629 S. Jefferson needs to be rebuilt, or tore down.

5) COMMITTEE REPORTS

a. Wine Tasting, Fri., January 28 - Melissa: turned out very well. About 50-55 people total, with more than enough food. Maybe a flyer a week in advance would be good (although the Astor Outlook did have a write-up, two weeks before). Uprisings was a very nice place, to have the event, although we could go to Marios, if we capped attendance at 75. Nobody drank soda, but all the water was consumed. Pastor Schleis will check with Gretchen first, about the $69 gratuity on the Tiletown bill.

b. Newsletter - Erik H. needs article on April 23 trail cleanup, and other articles by Fri.

c. Easter Egg Hunt - Roxanne will host the egg stuffing event, with refreshments. Tues., March 08, 6:00 PM.

6) OLD BUSINESS

Hospital Parking: Tony met, and then Carol M., Trini, and Tony met with St. V. St. V. will withdraw its proposal to expand the parking lot. Instead, they want to redo existing surface parking. The street would not be closed, and 150 employees would be moved to the new Prevea Clinic on Webster. With resizing (9' to 8.5'), they would have 111 extra parking spots. Tony supports the present proposal.

There's concern about people pulling out from VanBuren (stop sign) and Porlier intersection.

7) NEW BUSINESS

a. Annual Meeting - Mon. March 21, First Lutheran, 743 S. Monroe Ave. 6:00 PM Board, 6:30 PM public meeting. Pastor and Denise will take care of the refreshments and facilities. We'll have Mayor Schmitt, Water Dept., two for School Boards, Guardian Angels, and Community Policing as speakers.

b. Neville Public Museum 90th Birthday: was Astor Neighborhood the founders of Neville Public Museum? Neville would like Hazelwood, The Regency and ANA involved, probably in fund raising. Perhaps some sort of birthday party, in conjunction with the City Band? Bring ideas to future meetings.

8) ADJOURN: 7:10 PM
